Dear Dick:

25X1

On December 15th, [redacted] is leaving our organization to take a position with our Missile Systems Division at Sunnyvale, California.

With the re-assignment of detachment personnel completed under the new Agreements of Employment and the establishment of sufficient reserve personnel at Edwards to take care of your needs in the spring, the critical period of [redacted] activities is now complete.

In addition to his other duties [redacted] will assume the direction of matters previously under [redacted] direction. Answering to him in this field will be [redacted], both of whom have worked closely with [redacted] for more than two years and are thoroughly familiar with all details of our field support operations.

The division of assignments between these two men will follow, roughly, customer field of interest. [redacted] will handle matters connected with the basic 1913 contract detachment support, with which you are most concerned, and [redacted] will handle field support matters on the follow-on contract 1914 articles.
